Dear Friends,

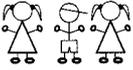

The Noontime Optimist Club of Freehold is pleased to partner with IEP Youth Services, Inc. for our 6th Annual Taste of the Towns. Both organizations have joined forces to make this event “All For the Kids”.

The Nooners focus on providing activities and scholarships for the youth in the area. With all of the activities that the Nooners sponsor, at least 1,000 children are impacted. We are a major contributor to Camp Quality-New Jersey, a program for children with cancer. The support from companions throughout the year and the week long overnite camp in the summer strives to improve the quality of life for the participants.

To all who have participated, whether as a sponsor, food vendor, volunteer or attendee, Thank You for helping us to achieve our goals.

Optimistically yours,
Patti Schragger, Chairperson
Carole Robinson, President

“No one can whistle a symphony. It takes a whole orchestra to play it.”

We are excited and grateful to have been selected by the Noontime Optimist Club to partner with them as they present their sixth annual “Taste of the Towns”.

The members of the committee worked tirelessly to make sure that nothing was neglected or overlooked to put on this delightful and delicious experience.

In order to continue their dedicated support of Camp Quality, NJ, and recognition of outstanding student’s scholastic achievement with programs and scholarships, the members of the Noontime Optimist Club rely upon the generosity and support of the community.

IEP Youth Services, Inc., which advocates for young people by providing resources for safe, nurturing environments, and counseling services to overcoming crisis and achieve self-actualization, also depends on that same generosity.

How perfect that the essence of both our missions, “It’s All for the Kids”, made for a great collaboration to bring about this wonderful event!

To all of our sponsors, participating food and beverage purveyors, purchasers of Ad Journal space, volunteers, and attendees, please accept our gratitude.

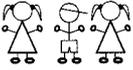

To the members of the Noontime Optimist Club, it was our pleasure to work with you and be part of such a successful endeavor. We couldn’t be more pleased.

Through this combined effort our community’s young people will benefit.

Gratefully,

Martin I. Krupnick, Psy.D.

Where Kids Can Be Kids Again

“If you light a lamp for somebody, it will also brighten your path.” Buddha

A very special “thank you” to the Noontime Optimist Club of Freehold and to IEP Youth Services, Inc. for their dedication to making kids’ lives better and keeping the path lit for so many.

CQNJ is about making a difference in children’s lives. We are a volunteer driven organization providing year-round programs for kids with cancer with a focus on improving the quality of life. Our programs are designed to foster the building of life skills, emotional strength and new friendships in a stress-free, fun-filled environment. These programs are offered at no cost to the families of kids with cancer.

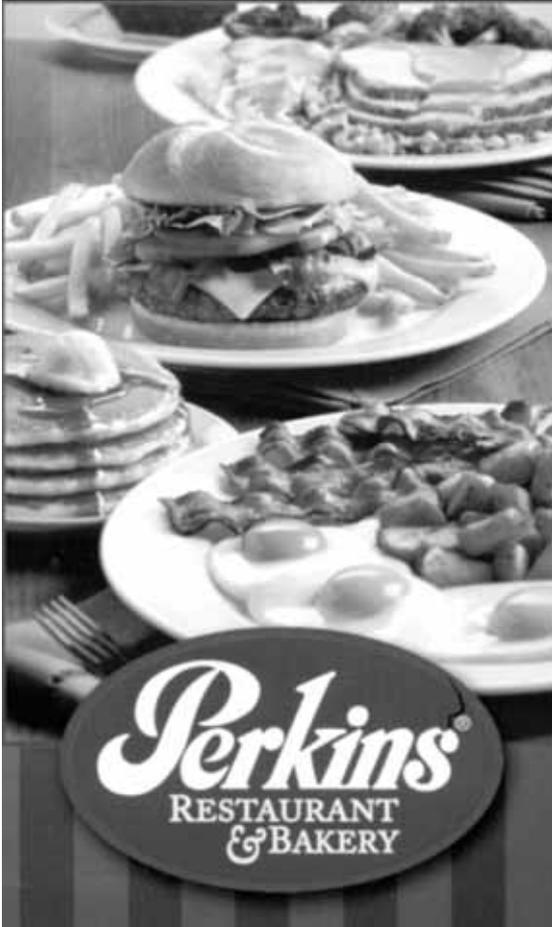

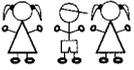

Our featured program is the Annual Overnight Summer Camp, held this year from Saturday, August 1 – Thursday, August 6, 2015.

Campers are ages 5 – 17

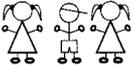

Volunteers, including companions, medical staff and support staff are at least 18 and 1 year out of high school.

Please visit our website for more information and for camper and volunteer applications.
